when your lost
i am found
when you slip
i hold my ground
when i fall
please take a bow
and when you're up
just remember i am down people looking for
fortune and fame
they don't know
that it's all the same
it's like any other game
you know there's a loser
but it's alright
when you feel your heart is breaking when all your friends are faking when its giving and no taking i will be by your side i've been over the hill and back survived every kind of attack it's been a few years at that as a matter of fact good luck is just good luck you don't go hungry if you got pot luck i've been down

but never on my knees
i see the forest for the trees
