I find it hard to shed a tear, brought it on yourself my dear and wrong, yes, I may be... don't leave a light on for me 'cause I ain't comin' home it hurts me baby to be alone yes, it hurts me baby a hundred years could never ease... there are things I won't believe I saw it with my own two eyes all the pain, I can't hide and this pain starts in my heart and this love tears us apart I'll finally get down, on my knees...oh yeah ain't bendin' over backwards baby..not to please...oh oooh
'cause I'm seeing things for the first time oh I'm seeing things for the first time oh yeah I'm seeing things for the first time in my life...in my life...yeah and I used to dream of better days that never came and sorry ain't nothin' to me...I'm gone and that's the way it must be so please, I've done my time...lovin' you was such a crime

you won't find me down on...on my knees...oh no no no won't find me over backwards baby..just to please..oh yeah yeah yeah

'cause I'm seein' things for the first time

I'm seein' things for the first time seein' things for the first time oh I'm seein' things for the first time yeah seein' things for the first for the first time...in my life, in my life...oh yeah
