You don't fool me, whenever you're around.
You put on a show, as if hope is to be found.

You don't fool me, whenever you're around.

The cat's out of the bag, loneliness
Is all you have, when the world tells who you are,
Learn to fight back.

Fight, fight, fight like you're dying. Breathe, breathe,
Won't you, won't you breathe. No matter what
Happens tonight, you've gotta wake up in the morning
And fight.

If I were drowning, would you see my hand break the surface?

If this were an S.O.S., would you ever get this?

Replace your mirror with, with a window - it's the only

Salvation from, from the shallow.

The cat's out of the bag, loneliness
Is all you have, when the world tells who you are,
Learn to fight back.

Fight, fight, fight like you're dying. Breathe, breathe,
Won't you, won't you breathe. No matter what
Happens tonight, you've gotta wake up in the morning
And...

Fight, fight, fight like you're dying. Breathe, breathe,
Won't you, won't you breathe. No matter what Happens tonight, you've gotta wake up in the morning
And fight.
