Everybody shake your body we don't ill we chill at party

Keep a groove that's sensual three dimensional unquestionable

The lover is professional Got a category my own and I'm the president

With my particular style particular extracurricular smoother and

trickier

Throwing on lyrics like you throw up a flapjack

You're a Chicen McNugget and I'm a Big Mac

Brainstorm soloist have a Coca colaist, doing very well

Because it took the right road to this

Path, make the undertake, the recordbreaker

Get up on the floor and do the Heavy D shake

Started with a pow and I'm going to end with a bang

We've got our own thang

Picture the set, girlies wet with sweat

In the corner people sitting down

They've had as much as they could possibly get

Here while I'm lamping

Feeling like a champ and push up on a cutie

Phone digits I'm stamping

The place was packed though, stuffed like an Oreo

Everybody broke for a Heavy D video

Pumping in stereo, people said, "Here we go,"

A cutie down in front said, "Heavy you're my hero"

Understand this, before you make a comment

Because there's always a meaning in a Heavy D statement

In this life, I strive for improvement

Be your own guide, follow your own movement

Loving is a legend

Me, I'm legendary at it

Living on the mike makes me a rapping acrobat

Don't try to swing, because you couldn't even hang

We've got our own thang

We've got our own thang

Original, smooth criminal, dance a lot, dance a little, shuffle to the

Don't clock anybody, let them all clock you

Don't be down with anybody, let them all be down with you

Stay self-managed, self-kept, self-taught

Be your own man, don't be borrowed, don't be bought

Started with a pow and I'm going to end it with a bang

We've got our own thang

We've got our own thang
