Yeah, I know everything there is to know about these things

Call it what you will

What you wanted

But I'm a liar and it's catching up to me

It's catching up to me

Turn off the search lights

I'm hiding inside myself

And you'll never find me here

One step away

We'll make it out alive again

But it's not up to me, up to me

Flood the streets with color

The battle has begun

It's all a sick and twisted wreck

And I've got it tied around my neck

All the books I've ever read are making sense

Now that it's time to breathe

My eyes are open, but I can't see a thing

But I feel everything

Falling short of all the goals I've ever set for myself

Only tells me one thing

It's not about tomorrow

It's about right this second

And the street lights are dimming

But all I hear are a million voices

Saying, "Breathe

Just breathe

Just breathe

Breathe

Just breathe

Just breathe."

Oh my God, "Just breathe"

One step away

We'll make it out alive again

But it's not up to me

I can't stop this now
