

A Sudden Tragedy "Against All Odds"

Visit "Against All Odds" on MotoLyrics.com

My heart, my strength is all I can give
We will never see eye to eye
It feels like were stepping toe to toe
This isn't how I want it, I will never stand
Down, I will stand my ground

You can never take us down
We stand as one
One back bone all of us unite

You fuck with one you fuck with us all,
Be sure to pick and choose your battles,
We can hold our own tonight,

But we will never loose our friends by our side

I will stand here by your side
From the beginning till the end
I can hold my own tonight with you by my side.

Take away my pain

I can hold my own tonight
But we can't lose our friends by our side
