[Keri]

I miss going out, feeling kinda stuck these days and I be on the highway, if only I could leave my place I used to be on top but I ain't got nothing better to say I been trying to hide but its written all over my face

I really thought you were the one, the only one I guess that I was wrong if everything I thought what do you do after love?

what can you say when its said and done nothing at all
cos you can't stop a heart break and you can't stop your tears from falling down so what do you do? what do you do?
after love

[Diddy]

I remember first day that I saw her face the feeling I had sorta felt like my birthday beautiful I must say she was my earthquake cute face, nice shape, you made my earth shake I'ma try keep the faith, do it like the church say she the one for me and I don't care I hear my heart say thought I had a home run but I guess at first base I found out the long run just another heart break so how much can my heart take you was like air to me you know I wouldn't leave, I needed you to breath see life is but a dream so its more then I believe if you ever been in love you will know what I mean so god help me please I wanna see the light she keep telling me I'm wrong but I know I'm right but try and prove wrong cos I don't wanna fight I know I make mistakes but still I need her in my life

[Keri]

tell me how I'm supposed to heal this open wound and tell me who had thought that I'd be trying to get over you

I'm stuck in the moment, of memories of me and you and I can get over it, but I'm ain't sure that I want to because you made your bed, now you gotta lie in it now all the things you said don't mean a thing

I can't believe I gave you one last shot I let it ride now baby it's your stuff oh so leave you're not good for me it took a while to finally come to my senses

what do you do after love?
when it's over
so what do you do? what do you do?

[Diddy]

this is what you made me do pay attention she know who I'm talking to, and I know you listening I think about you all the time, if not every minute I promise hurting you was never my intention something bout your style, the way that you presenting her everything I see I ever had you was in it I apologize for every time that you might have cried there's not enough words to describe how I feel inside guardian angel sent from the sky I always knew you would have made a beautiful bride and that's right and I wish you could of stayed, so much but I'm stuck when I betrayed your trust you know your love is more than wearing dolce and gabbana, gucci and prada, trips to nevada and I admit that you hurt probably true but I don't mistake the only one I love is you

I love you
