She has spread her arms
To get out of town tonight
They say it's wrong
But she knows that she's right
She's alone
Above the city lights

Yeah she had packed her bags
To see the end of the story
Flies over mountains of glory
And won't stop til it's morning
Yeah she has said goodbye
To her friends cuz she loves em
She said "birds have to leave sometimes
And no one can stop them"

But she's confused by city lights
Too many cars it's way too bright
It's electric... it's electric

Vibrant colours paint the night
Nothing can catch her on this flight
She's electric... she's electric

Bright lights is all she knows

Yeah she had packed her bags to see the end of the story
Flies over mountains of glory
And won't stop til it's morning
Yeah she has said goodbye
To her friends cuz she loves em
She said birds have to leave sometimes
And no one can stop them

She has spread her arms
To get out of town tonight
They say it's wrong
But she knows that she's right
She's alone
Above the city lights
