Can i sleep
On a water bed?
...so i will drown the dreams are bad
Can i sleep
In your arms?
...and cry until i will be worn
I will blow
On the mirrors
To send melancony away
From my face
...and i will clutch my arms to yours
And my hands in yours
Like a bug embrace
Can i talk
Without brakes?
Go on until i loose my breathe
Can i sit
On your legs?
...ad i will clutch my arms to yours
And my hands in yours
Like a bug embrace
...and i don't mind
If it happens only in my mind
...and i don't care
If i scratch the wall with my nails
If i take the night for the day
And i will choke my face
Like a bug embrace
