Been walking a thousand miles,
Memories wasting my time.
Keep bringing me back to life,
Chasing the daemons inside.

You won the fight,
I'm out of sight,
And all I have left is your
Un-ob-tru-sive
Smile.

I see your
Cold and lonely tear
Slowly disappear.

Remains of a broken heart,
Tearing my mind apart.
What if this dream was real,
And not just fantasy.

Your time has come,
I'm on the run.
And all I have left is your
Un-ob-tru-sive
Smile.

I see your
Cold and lonely tear
Slowly disappear.

[2x]
One last smile,
One last look at you.
One last breath
And you have disappeared.

And you have disappeared.

Disappeared.
