Well alright, yea

I heard that yea dawg I heard that Homie spit the truth every word was a fact
He got a little cheese and his bitch bad Plus he on the rise so that's probably why his haters mad

Do it to em' Deezy do it to em' They say money talks well I speak the shxt fluent Like a hammer I go hard at what I'm doing This beat got em' jumping better get with the movement Bxtch I go to school for law who you suing Got her scared to bring friends cause I might run through em'
Girls give it up like it aint nothing to em' and jealousy for fellas makes you want to go and shoot em' but my aim right and my game tight that means I aint trying to fight dont you see the red light or the red beam pointed at your melon murk all the witnesses and aint no body tellin' why pay for a feature if these the words they selling hope niggas heard that cause if not im yelling I'm so high im in heaven looking for a 7 11 I shouldnt have smoked the blunt mixed with the resent and I dont need a white guy in a suit to sign me I just need my producer and my bitch behind me good weed while I'm rhyming then I spit flames like the end of a gun when its firing

I heard that yea dawg I heard that Homie spit the truth every word was a fact
mad

You know my haters mad, I dont need a name tag cause I stand out from these suckers who claim they got swag

I got mango purp in a plastic bag but I aint sharing with ya rather dome that and not cause im cheap homie never that I aint tryna get a fukd up high cause a nigga whack and Im 100 gotta keep it real and i smoke some marijuana everytime i get to chill deposit hunnid bills my pickle they want the dill left hand on the wheel right hand on her neck forreal probably say my life aint too bad the way that its going but i wont fold like a bitch like terrel owens you niggas talk while i showing, you backing out while i go in they not like me i told em, haters like j's I just smoke em
They worthless like a token, no Facebook I like poking you niggas short jab, I'm long strokin And I dive in that pxssy when she soaking Like a camera a nigga stay focused after I nut you see the smoke gone hocus pocus

I heard that yea dawg I heard that
mad
