Don't tell me that things will become better Because I know that everyday will be the same I've been driving all night
And there's no one in sight
Because everyone has gone away, yea
I'll make best friends with myself
Til you come back home
I'll drive through all the street lights
Through all the empty roads (on the empty roads)
find it in you, to find it in me I'll leave it to you to make me cry (to make me cry) all these footprints left behind make me wonder if anything will come of this and now I'm heartless 'cuz you took this part of me(part of me) I'll do what you want and never be afraid(never be afraid)
Of what you think, of what you think(of what you think) (so stay away)(so stay away)
leave me alone
so keep away(so keep away)
don't come near me (dont come near me)
I wear a smile to hide the pain
Of watching him touch you
And I know his touch is unfamiliar And I know you never wanted this like this
The day your life is spent You'll walk among the dead
You'll stand unseen to me
And watch me, watch me bleed
Then you'll regret the day
You let me go away
'cuz you know it's your fault, I lay here, I lay here
I lay here now
I lay here now(now)
I lay here now(now, I lay here now,now)
(I lay here now)(now)(I lay here now)(lay here)
