

As I Lay Dying "Tear Out My Eyes"

Visit "Tear Out My Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

The storm is coming
And I have a choice
To release the legion
Or lose my voice

Should I scream and plea
For nothing
Or build a roof
Over my head

I mark the days that I've wasted
Trying to change what has been set
For fate could kiss myself

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes
I'll just admit
They're part of me

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes
I'll just admit
They're part of me

I played both enemies
Who do not hate me
And take regrets
Who could care less

For an unnecessary struggle
So now I know
What it means to be bad
Changing everything

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes
I'll just admit
They're part of me

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes

I'll just admit
They're part of me

There're part of me

They're part of me

I'll just admit
They're part of me

Instead of fighting
Against myself

(Solo)

I will open my eyes
To find who needs me

I am awakened
I am awakened

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes
I'll just admit
They're part of me

Before I'm dead
Tear out my eyes
I'll just admit
They're part of me

They're part of me

I'll just admit
They're part of me

I am awakened

I'll just admit
They're part of me
