I will not pretend, you'll make me descend, I will not feel prosperity
Times like these will change, but it's not in range, cannot reach my ability, to say:
That I'll soon be ready, just to standing steady, then I'm climbing higher, again My life is a riddle, I'm caught in the middle, between the fire

What is wrong with me? I wanted you to be, my everything everything
What is wrong with me? I wanted you to see, that you were everything, everything to me

I hope your feeling guilty, why your thoughts are filthy, don't know what to do My life is a riddle, I'm caught in the middle

What is wrong with me? I wanted you to be, my
everything everything
were everything everything to me

This ain't the love, this ain't the love, that's from above
This ain't the joy, this ain't the joy, that I wished for

What is wrong with me? I wanted you to be, my
everything everything
were everything everything to me

This ain't the love, this ain't the love, that's from above
This ain't the joy, this ain't the joy, that I wished for
This ain't the love, this ain't the love, that's from above
(This ain't the love), I've been imagine
