baby you're one in a million i just met you at a party why don't you try to kiss me don't you feel all alone ?

i found you, i found you in the street, you were dancing on your own don't you know me ?

I like the way you're moving like the last time i had a dream you were in the city it was late and the sun was sleeping'

I kissed you, i kissed you on the lips, on the cheeks like a kid in a garden this time this time the dream is not so over this time yeah this time my mind is not so blind baby, it's like the first time
