Look the road full of rage,
It shines again on the meltin cages,
Here rocks again roll,
Wake up to another kind of world!

Oh Storm, go away!
You won't find in me another slave!

It's time to fight, to take a stand,
Rock the brave frailty of this land,
Smash every drag:
We just found our ancient flag!

Oh Storm, go away!
You won't find in me another slave!

Rescue the dreams they tried to foil,
I've seen them stifle into a pot of oil,
It's our land we have to free:
Don't let them foul up this scented sea!

Oh I won't stay
Now I know how to change my way!
