Flatball, Yeah right,
Hey moma, they call me weezer.
you should be with me, i got a pocket full of reasons, baby i could bless you, and u ain't even sneeze it, i'd expressin' you and you don't even need me i could have you dreamin', when you ain't even sleepin' moma i could help you get off like the weekend, if that's what you wanna do to the new Enrique I pocket this sinna, put the song on replay, and then she backed it up like replay

Enrique Iglesias

When you need it, girl i try hard but i can't escape, oh

so extreme, oh baby Baby I don't give a deaf, i know that you 'vance no

And your eyes are still alive, cas i know you wanna come with me tonight, and i say you're right!

When he believed you want it,
Push, Push, back on me, girl i can't hold no more yea Push, Push, back up on me, girl can't you lay it on

Don't Stop until the morning, just keep pushing that on

Will you please me (you'll know when)
Will you tease me (you'll know when)
Baby i (let's go) not the kind of guy that don't get real
