"Tired Skin"

Take this old and very tired skin

Wrap up a newborn baby and keep her warm

Take this old and very tarnished ring, slip it on your finger

And make it shine

My feet hurt from walking around this room

My head hurts from thinking about you

Take this old and worn out violin and hold it in your arms

And make it sing

Footsteps come and footsteps go

Some of them are new and some are old

Read a story from this weathered book

Weave a happy ending with your hair
