The year is '64
When I heard that knocking at my door,
He introduced himself as Marmaduke
Said he's gonna start a new island.
So I said:
Fine, leave my island, mine will be better than yours
anyway.
So he left without saying goodbye,
I sat down and wonderd why

Fire the cannons now,
Don't stop until they're down,
Let's make the bad guys frown,
We won't be killed! x2

The battle raged on for 40 days,
I raised my fist and shouted:

Fire the cannons now,
Don't stop until they're down,
Let's make the bad guys frown,
We won't be killed!
