Take a man of impressionable age

Lock him in his own ribcage

What do you get?

To have is human to hold devine

I'm never strong enough

I just do what I am let

But I want to be a wave breaking

On the shores of undiscovered land

And I have had enough of making plans

And taking stands

Horse

Take me back take me through

Take me to where you will think I will understand you

Horse water wind

Do exactly what I tell you to you will be hurt

But I will know it's true

Horse water wind

And I have had enough of just demands

And holding hands

Horse water wind

Come carry me

Horse water wind
