Charging through neighborhoods in the middle of the night if there's no body out then there's no one left to fight and i ran for miles and miles without any shoes and i screamed at the top of my lungs, i screamed at you but no one was listening, no no one was listening and i'm charging through neighborhoods charging through neighborhoods

You go get the microphone and i'll turn out the lights if your battling prescription then your in for quite a fight
my thoughts are controlled by the chemicals in my brain but there slowly wearing out and i'm losing everything

i'm charging through neighborhoods Without you and all my friends are dying, and all my fears are burning out

The world is like the mouth of a lion, don't let it chew you up and spit you out

night
if your to drunk to stand then your too drunk to riot and i wouldn't be anywhere if you weren't by my side but this world is cruel and its taking me for a ride

in my mind

and all my friends are dying,
The world is like the mouth of a lion, donâ€™t let it chew you up and spit you out
