You are divine
You're what I prayed for
I'm yours to keep
I'm yours to handle with care
There's life form in everything
When you're around
All those years we were transparent
Through the misleading touch of gold

Our love expires with the universe
A love in action without pause
No need to follow any rules
We're at a game we always win

Dried up in words
Sparkling eyes wide open
All I can thinking of
Is you and me to the end
You are divine
You're what I prayed for
I'll be your guide
I will be always by your side

Our love expires with the universe
A love in action without pause
No need to follow any rules
We're at a game we always win

Our love expires with the universe
A love in action without pause
No need to follow any rules
We're at a game we always win

Our love expires with the universe
A love in action without pause
No need to follow any rules
