You'll stay safe with me
When light turns into dusk
When lies turn into trust

So keep warm for now
Our blood will soon run cold
Our youth will turn us old

So don't box me out
Keep me in
Why don't we talk about staying friends?

Don't you say that you'll never come back to me-

And I scream asking why
There's something you're trying to hide
The truth that I'm denied

Do you still run away
From the lies that you've left behind
The problems in your mind

So don't box me out
Keep me in
Why don't we talk about staying friends?

Don't you say that you'll never come back to me
But don't you say that you'll never come back to me

Burn now, burn now, you know
Burn now, burn now, you know
Burn now, burn now, you know
Burn now, burn now, you know

So don't you say that you'll never come back to me
So don't you say that you'll never come back to me
So don't you say that you'll never come back to me
