Shawty if you love me like your lost and you can't find your way without me
You gon wake up one day when I'm gone thinking why did you doubt me
But you better believe me I take it to the, take it to the,
take it to the top
You got to believe me I take it to the, take it to the, take it to the top

I made you why would I play you?
Not only showered you with gifts I bathed you Plus I hit the first night and I stayed too
I know it's early but I just thought I would page you Hey you!
Know that I'm willing and able
You could tell from all the presents that I gave you Still you
Be acting like you so unfaithful
You swear I'm fucking on a rendezvous
When you think I'm freaking I be on my grind
Even when we not freaking you be on my mind
I'm on the top I'm flipping them dimes
So I can't give you all of my time cause I'm 24 hours a day stuck in a war
At least 8 hours or more cooking them rhymes
So 16 hours just you can hit the store and you complaining you want more free time?..YUP!

Them other niggas be singing the same song

You in your mens. or something you want the meaner
