You've got rain in your eyes and a head full of stars all the tears you can hold in your hand And a roomful of sleep and a promise to keep ins't it just like love In a world made of love you just lose in the game they give you these words but they've taken your name now you're out in the cold now ain't that a shame
isn't it just like love you can have anything you can hold in your hands and I here always, always alone at the end of the day it's the price that you pay with your pieces of love all your pieces of love (CHORUS)
and it's my time to turn you around and it's my time to hold out a hand and it's my time to turn on a light for you my time

it's my time

there's a world at the door with a heart and a sleeve and there's no one to turn there is you

and a deal to be made and a price to be paid

so you stand in the dark and the sun never shows and you're whispering secrets that everyone knows so we know that they've told you they just wanna hold you, kiss you and take you and use you and thank you you have anything you can hold in your hand
