ou want to know if I still love You
Will I do what I used to do?
I know sometimes I can step off track
But with open arms, You call me back

Yes, yes, I love You
I say yes
So I say yes
Yes, I love You
I say yes
So I say yes
Yes, I love You
And I say yes
You want to see if I'm Yours completely
No, there's no place I'd rather be
Some time ago, I made this vow
Again, I say yes here and now

You said "yes" for me
So I say "yes" to You
Even when I want to go
I can't leave
Cuz You said "yes" for me
Now I say "yes" to You
Anywhere and everywhere
You're always right there with me
