You did it to yourself
Now you're all by your self
Acting like you hate me
I left because you made me
You played me to the left
Now there's nobody left
To hear you're complaining I'm gone and all your hearing is your own

[Chorus:]
E-echo!
E-echo!
And I'm gone
And you're all alone
Can't you hear the hear the
E-echo!
E-echo!
No one to hear you
There's nobody near you

It started off great
But who was to know
That love that is lost
Cannot be let go
You said it's my fault
Ok then I'll go
It's better to know

Now there's nobody to argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone!
And your all alone hearing your own damn

[Chorus:]
E-echo!
E-echo!
And I'm gone

And you're all alone
Can't you hear the hear the
E-echo!
E-echo!
No one to hear you
There's nobody near you

Thinking back to the life you had
All the games you played, all the tears you cried
It's a shame was it all so bad?
Through the pain through the lies you told
And the nights so cold, was it all in vain?
Now pack my bags, got a one way ticket
Now I'm Going on a midnight train
Feelin like you cried me a river till you drowned
In the mirror, thoughts drive you insane
Now you missin me, pictures are up close
Thoughts are kissin me, lonely company
You like misery, now you wishin me back and listening
Echoes whispering haunt your nightmares
You used to call me, and I'd be right there
The feelings did change, but that was your choice
But now you're left with the sound of your own voice,
Can you hear me?

Echo!
E-echo!
No one is near you, no one can hear you
It's your own damn
E-echo!
E-echo!
No one to hear you, there's nobody near you

All night long
I thought to my self
Why would I stay with you?
Realized that you were the one who had issues
So why would I miss you

To argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone!
And you're all alone
Hearing your own damn echo!
It's just you and your
E-echo!
It's just your and your

I hope your talking alone
It's just you and your
Echo!
It's just you and your
E-echo!
There's no one to hear you
There's nobody near you
It's just your own damn
Echo!
Your own damn
E-echo!
Echo!
E-e-echo!

Echo
E-echo
E-e-echo

To argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone!
