(*1:08 of instrumental Arabic music*) [Bashy] Look, yo, no castaway, no survivor I ain't lost and this ain't shipwrecked I feel small in this big wide world A mummy ain't said "Honey, I shrunk the kids," yet I ain't Jesus, but I'm walkin' on water There's no bomb here, there's no war cause I can break out of jail with a lighter So is there any point in making laws, blood This ain't Atlantis, are you sure? I nearly suffocated when I touched the shore No rain, condoms it poured and up the road You'll never guess who I saw [Kano] Uh, uh, uh, it's K-A Look, skip on the beat like Ali in the gym (Yeah) Honey, I'm home this is where I wanna live (Yeah) Just found it like Nemo on the pillow I don't know if it's greener, but it's green though On the other side of the fence, bind to the ends Look, no fence, no stress, no rent, no superficial shit, this real flow Where the women look hot, but the beach cold And the speech goes like, "Hi little lady" Sex on the beach, wanna try for a baby Word in the village, I'm a little bit crazy Swag up on a hundred degrees, no eighty Look, if heaven had a VIP, uh, this is it: white sand, blue sea, But I don't know who they are and I'm damn sure they don't know me, but I come in peace! [Bash] + (Kano) Cool! White flag! White flag! (Uh-huh, no war!) No guns! (No corps!) Just life (Just love) No hype (Just fun) No ties (Just me and my mind) Just me and my wife (But tell me if I'm dreamin' cause I don't wanna wake up till the evenin') And I don't wanna be left sleepin' from all the diseases that I breathe in (Look, respect the island, no stealin') And don't bring religion here, no three kings (It's great and we ain't leavin'! (*Instrumental Arabic music until end*))
