Today theyâ€™re waiting on the other side
You never made anything of your entire life
Something that fulfill you, something that blows your mind
Suddenly you need, you need time for what Waste another hour behind your TV
One minute of lies, one second to think
Youâ€™re guilty of this waste of time, this waist of life
Mankind will never remember your name
All is fake
You just missed your life while waiting
Mankind will never remember your name
You wait too much, you have regrets,
You missed your life, you must resign
Today theyâ€™re waiting on the other side
You never made anything of your entire life
Something that fulfill you, something that blows your
mind
Suddenly you see other stories
People around you were living interesting lives
One minute of lies, one second to think
The only creative things you made were in your dreams
You missed the signs
You were so blind
Youâ€™re waited the other side
Now itâ€™s too late
Now all is fake
Youâ€™re fucking moron, youâ€™re fucking moron, youâ€™re fucking moron
Suddenly you scream, scream your anger
The only interesting life you had, was in your head
One minute of lies, one second to think
You blame others for your misery and for your fears.
