Run away, run away, run, run away
To the gate of hell
Run away, run away, run, run away
As fast as you can
You're not so far, you're not so far
Come on
You're creeping, suffocating
All I see is a dead man walking
You stunned me, you fuck me
All I want is to have you burned
Your hell waits to judge all the people called heroes
Confusing the truth
Get away, get away, get, get away
You're reaching the end
Get away, get away, get, get away
Dead man's fate comes true
Dead man walking, run
You try to fight in vain you can't escape
Your name is carved in stone
You beg for mercy, ask for salvation
How dare you ask me, no negotiation
Run away, run away, run, run away
Can you feel the cold
Run away, run away, run, run away
Limbo is waiting.
