Go

You slide into the intricacies of the universal consciousness

There is the solution of the understanding

Open my mind

I want to be myself and be part of all

I wanna let go, wanna surrender, I go

I elevate my soul and blow my mind for ever

Overwhelmed by the brightness

Everything shines like crystals

Iâ€™m confident, I thrive freely

Itâ€™s like the end but Iâ€™m reborn

This is how you feel when you die

I canâ€™t wait to feel again

This is what you live when you dream

I wanna sleep all my life

Freedom is illegal

Why do you think it is, the awakening

Of humanâ€™s souls scared them

No more weak addicted, they donâ€™t want to lose control.
