Extravaganza, please can you feed me
I have to fill my safe with all the gold you've got Gold, give me more, it cost me more
You drive me crazy, it's not so easy
To have a new princess every night in my bed
Hell yeah, I'm your old godfather
Hell yeah, trust in your old govfather
Hate me, pay me
I'm a swine who needs a whore
Feed me, Fuck me
You are the one who sweats for me, who pays for me
Are you kidding, who the hell you think you are Oh Motherfucker, who the hell you really are
You search for youth, no pride, no glory
You look for lust, want my pity, no way
You always fucked me
I have the power
I want your soul
Hell yeah, I'm your old godfather
Hell yeah, trust in your old govfather
Extravaganza, please can you feed me
I have to feed my mind with all the dreams you have Whore; give me more, more whore
You drive me crazy, it's not that easy
To have a new princess every night in my bed
Hate me, pray me
I am the one who put you down
Fear me, forgive me
You forced my hand, gave me no choice, rest in peace.
