You were, you were the pride of my kingdom
Your betrayal ashamed me traitor
You think I'm wrong because I lead you to war
You think I'm wrong because I treat you like a whore
If you think I am, I'm never wrong
There's nobody you can trust but yourself
This is the new empire
Go along with rules that are insane
I will kill all the people on the road
Execution, you are dead
You spill the blood around my way
Become, become the tool of my revenge
You are on the right way avenger
I think you're strong because I lead you to war
I think you're strong because I treat you like a whore
Well, I think you are the progeny of hell!
Everybody gonna be part of the freak show
You'd better be the soldier who obeys
See what happened to people who laugh at me
You'd better see this world is not fair
I will never stop killing as enemies still breathing
You feel you are the avenger of war
You feel you are, come on sharp on your blade
You feel the war, let's spill the blood around
You are, you are the pride of my kingdom
Your enslavement pleases me warrior
I feel I'm strong because I'm living for war
I feel I'm strong because I'm destroying this world
Now I'm sure I am the progeny of hell.
