Let's tap your heart
So, we can paint the walls
And see if anybody likes the tone
(Or the pain)

The hungry eyes
Waiting for your life flash
Now, they're gonna see it
(Now, they're gonna see it)

Open your veins
So, we can make a pool and bathe
And see if anyone complains
(Of the stain)

Let's strip you down
So, we can see your old scars
Now, you're gonna feel it
(Now, you're gonna feel it)
Show me how to shine now

Have you turned, turned to dust?
I saw an insect learn to fly
Have you ever seen the kingdom of the flies?
(It's form was scorned)

Have you lost the sense of touch?
I saw it stay in sovereignty
Have you ever turned to dust?

Let's lift you up
So, we can see how fast you fall
We always thought that you could fly
(Now, you'll crawl)

The lack of loyalty
You thought, you once felt
Now, you're gonna feel it
(Now, you're gonna feel it)
Show me how to shine now

Have you turned, turned to dust?

I saw an insect learn to fly
Have you ever seen the kingdom of the flies?
(It's form was scorned)

Have you lost the sense of touch?
I saw it stay in sovereignty
Have you ever turned to dust?

Now, show me, now, show me
Now, show me how to shine

Now, show me
(Oh)
Now, show me
(Oh)
Now, show me
(Oh)
How to shine

Now, show me
(Oh)
Now, show me
(Oh)
Now, show me
(Oh)
How to shine

Have you turned, turned to dust?
I saw an insect learn to fly
Have you ever seen the kingdom of the flies?
(It's form was scorned)

Have you lost the sense of touch?
I saw it stay in sovereignty
Have you ever turned to dust?
