Lie in the comfort of sweet calamity
With nothing left to lose
Lie in the darkness, I'm slowly drowned to sleep
Three tears I've saved for you

I'd retrace the steps that led me here
But nothing lives behind me
So I lie in this field bathed in the light that loves me
Three tears I've saved for you

Will you be my, be my beloved?
Will you help, help me to get through?
Will you be my, be my destruction?
Will you help, help me to be through?

Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh

Will you be my, be my beloved?
Will you help, help me to get through?
Will you be my, be my destruction?
Will you help? Three tears I've saved for you
