Flee today with me and we can hide
Until they want you
Where the strange creatures play
In mystic caves of strength, disassociate
Seal my fate, seal my, seal your
Until they eat their own young

This is a lonely war tonight and I'm forsaken
Are you a lonely one, too?
This is a lonely war tonight, the soldier's waking
They were the lonely ones, too

Leave your stain and love my wounds tonight
Leave like they all do
Where the strange creatures play
In this game so fake with a reprobate
Seal our fate, seal our, seal your

Till we eat our own young

This is a lonely war tonight and I'm forsaken
Are you a lonely one, too?
This is a lonely war tonight, the soldier's waking
They were the lonely ones, too

This is a lonely war tonight and I'm forsaken
Are you a lonely one, too?
This is a lonely war tonight, the soldier's waking
They were the lonely ones, too

This is a lonely war tonight and I'm forsaken
Are you a lonely one, too?
Are you a lonely one, too? The soldier's waking
Are you a lonely one, too?
