Watch the stars
Turn you to nothing
Now blush and smile as they whisk you away

But your lips have been more
I'll swallow your fear
I will show you how
All the bite marks impressed
A need to be here
I need to sing

City lights, like rain
Dance and explode
Fall apart, then you thought

What if i'm, not dead?
Kiss and control
All of our, broken hearts

Velvet runs, risk while I'm straining
He blushed and smiled
And he said you would stay

One more time to my breath
I'll feed you this sky
I will show you how
Steal the glamour from death
And before you die
Then you should sing

City lights, like rain
Dance and explode
Fall apart, then you thought

What if i'm, not dead?
Kiss and control
All of our, broken hearts
Hearts
Our hearts

Now I wanna die like movie stars, you said
As you jumped from the height of our cutting room

floor
While above us glowing, exploding, our dreams
Burst forth in light and death

Hold me and tell me we'll burn like stars
We'll burn as we fall
Watch as city lights transform us

City lights, like rain
Dance and explode
Fall apart, the pain of old lights

What if i'm, not dead?
Kiss and control
Fall apart, the pain of our lives, has pain
Dance and explode

City lights, like rain, city lights
So caress me
Kiss and control
