There is nothing to me
There is nothing though there was a time
I had felt elation
Before all sensation died
I cannot breathe
I can't deny that I've been feigning, for you,
Every vital sign defied

This means nothing to me
This means nothing so spare me the lies
I deny you sympathy
Just as I have been denied

(I cannot breathe)
I cannot breathe.
(I cannot breathe)
I can't deny that I've been faking, for you,
Every sign of life.
I died

For the last lie,
And the heartbreak
For the first time,
I could not take
I could not take
Til I made you cry.

This is what you taught me
This is what you taught
And I learned well
To recognize that feeling
Easily can be dispelled.

(I cannot breathe)
I cannot breathe.
(I cannot breathe)
I can't deny that I've been faking, for you,
Every sign of life.
I died

For the last lie

And the heartbreak
For the first time
I could not take
(For the last lie
And the heartbreak
For the first time
For the last lie
And the heartbreak
For the first time)
I could not take
Til I made you

Show your wounds
I'm bored with mine
Nothing is new
Don't despair I rarely cry
Oh my
Oh my dear please dry your eyes
Who could harm you?
To hurt you is to be despised
As I'd love to

For the last lie
And the heartbreak
For the first time
I could not take
(For the last lie
And the heartbreak
For the first time)
I could not take
Til I made you cry
Til I made you cry
Til I made you
Cry
Oh
Til I made you cry
