Don't waste your touch
You won't feel anything
Or were you sent to save me?
I've thought to much
You won't find anything
Worthy of redeeming

Yo he estado aquí muchas veces antes y regreso

To break down
And cease all feeling
Burn now
What once was breathing
Reach out
And you may take my heart away

Imperfect cry
And scream in ecstasy
So what befalls the flawless?
Look what I've built
(Please don't do this)
It shines so beautifully
(Why won't you look at me?)
Now watch as it destroys me

Y regreso aquí otra vez y comienzo

To break down
And cease all feeling
Burn now
What once was breathing
Reach out
And you may take my heart away

Break down
And cease all feeling
Burn now
What once was breathing
Reach out
And you may take my heart away

I left it all behind and never said goodbye

I left it all behind and never said goodbye
I left it all behind and never said goodbye
I left it all to die

I saw its birth
I watched it grow
I felt it change me
I took the life
I ate it slow
Now it consumes me

Break down
And cease all feeling
Burn now
What once was breathing
Reach out

Break down
Burn now
What once was breathing
Reach out
Heart away
