Oooo sometimes I get in your way just to hear you say you want to push me like clay Well that's okay

I should have known right from the start that I'd fall for you and get ripped apart Just like a shark

Deeper than emotion
I'm wrapped up by the notion So I'm Causing this commotion so ripe with my devotion

Sipping on that potion i can tell its pretty potent so I just go where I go and let the rest to be set in motion

Chorus:

This is probably the best I've ever felt in my life
in my life

Got to say goodbye to any worry you have for more time
for more time

Verse 2:

I checked my Rolex
it's time to roll up what's new? Nothin, not even the beat Im spittin to Still waitin on makin the big checks

So I checked myself and said I gotta finish school

But in the mean time I check the ball Pressure is on Cuz ppl checkin out the checks on my shoes.

How many times do I fall
No matter what I get back up so I never lose

Even when they told me bout my blind wife I gotta hit it raw wit a chick im supposed to meet and marry on the same night.

Seems like Vegas right
Except the Vegas way kinda seems right.
Even with the artificial light.

What a gamble I'm a gamblin man lovin the thrill of takin the highest risk that I can Lovin the high return that has my people discern me for the success I earn gottem callin me the man

I'm walkin around in prince Akeem's shoes Too many bitches around I can't choose.

They got me Feelin like im king tut Got 6 8s blowin ma dick screwin them like a hex nut
