On a road inside a car
Sits a man with golden eyes
Thinks he is the fastest man alive
He'll win before he dies

This is not a real world
He's lost in cyberspace
Ooh this is useless
He throw's it all away

Inside a building shot to parts
Stands a man with fearless eyes
Thinks he's gunman of the year
He'll kill them all before he dies

Ooh this is useless
He throws it all away
This is not a real world
He's lost in cyberspace
Ooh this is pointless
Time just flows away

On a farm in virtual town
Sits a man with careless eyes
He will forget about this place
Cause nothing really lives or dies

Ooh this is useless
He's lost in cyberspace
Ooh this is pointless
Time just flows away
Cause this is not a real
He's lost in cyberspace
Ooh this is useless
He throw's it all away
