[(Intro)]

Hello everybody

Today we're gonna listen to two stories

About two different people

And how life can be a bitch

So get ready, here we go!

{Chorus}

Life is just a bitch when you've got noone

Life is just pointless if you've got no gun

Life is worth nothing if noone loves you

Life is a crazy thing, be careful what you do

(Verse 1)

Hey mom

Where's my music at?

(You don't need that stupid crap)

Quit callin it crap

Why you always doin that?

I swear

Son, gimme more lip, I'll beat your ass bare

Forget it, I'm outta here, I'm better off out there

Oh shit

Slammed the door in my face and locked it

Now I'm outside and it's cold, without a jacket

I said Mom

Lemme back in

I didn't mean I's leavin

I meant I was just goin outside to do some thinkin

She laughed and said

Well you got plenty of time to think now

And I will ll call the cops if you do not leave now

I said mom

I'm hungry

Just please let me back in

I'm starvin, I'm blackin out

This might be the end

She opened the door, and slammed it in my face again

Then laughed hysterically, so I got mad and kicked it in

She called the cops

And then they hauled me off
Now I'm sittin in a jail cell
With nobody to gimme bail

{Chorus}

(Verse 2)

It's was like
Hey trick
Wanna suck my dick
And the I loved her
With a rubber
So we wouldn't have kids
But then 2 days later I got syphilis
I went to docter, he said I had 6 weeks to live
I went back out on the streets to find the bitch
To strangle her and murder her for givin me this
I stumbled on the block
My vision was gettin hazy
I whipped out my gat
And I started to act crazy
I was walkin up to her and I could barely limp
And then outta nowhere popped out the stupid bitches pimp
He approached me in order to take my gun
I cocked my gun back and filled his skull with one
I turned to the trick to tell her she better run
But before I could, she grabbed a knife and stabbed my lung
I stared at my chest as my blood started to run
It was then that it dawned on me just what I have done

{Chorus}
