Look

The sun is burning out
This is the brightest light
I've ever seen

Listen

The sky is falling down
This is the loudest sound
I've ever heard

Does it really have to end like this?
Nothing but the goodbye kiss
I feel I'm losing control
This is the last day of the world

Here

We're sitting in empty room
Pretending bride and groom
We've never been

Now

The world is so close to the end
Your face is fading away
Hold me tight

Does it really have to end like this?
Nothing but the goodbye kiss
I feel I'm losing control
This is the last day of the world
