I can tell the way you're lookin' you need something from me
And I could bet it's affirmation that you're seeking Cause my million "thank you's" sound like silence in response
To all you give when you don't get those three words
from me

So forgive me if I sing nervous
For once I'm gonna be assertive
So I won't lose before I learn and You, too, need to know you've heard it

So here's to believe, that I'm feeling right for you
Here's to believe, my heart is on your side Here's to believe, this song says everything I couldn't find
Looking for the melody to come alive
So come alive

Listen close and look as I stumble Deeper and you will see Cause you can hear under my breath when I hardly breathe
More than butterflies, I'm feeling hot like bricks on me
And simple words are so so far from coming to me

So I'm making my own measure
La-da-da attempt to sink your feather
With the promise you'll feel better
If you read this song like a love letter

So here's to believe, that I'm feeling right for you
Here's to believe, my heart is on your side
Here's to believe, this song says everything I couldn't
Looking for the melody to come alive

So come alive
La la

Here's to believe, that I'm feeling love for you
Here's to believe, my heart is on your side
Here's to believe, this song says everything I couldn't
Looking for the melody to come alive

I'm feeling love for you
Here's to believe, my heart is on your side
Here's to believe, this song says everything I couldn't
Looking for the melody to come alive
So come alive
