(from "Music from the Heart")

A special smile
A certain touch
I never had a love
That I loved so much
When I look back
You're everywhere
Turn the page, You were there

My very best friend,
My summer day
My only someone to depend on
When I'm lost in my way
You came and answered
My every prayer
Turn the page, You were there

What would I do if some strange morning
I open up my eyes to find you're gone
I can't imagine how I would survive that
Find another reason to go on

My one sure thing
My solid ground
All I ever wanted
Was the love that we found
When I look back
You're everywhere
Turn the page, You were there

What would I do if some strange morning
I open up my eyes to find you're gone
I can't imagine how I would survive that
I can't imagine how I would go on

A special smile
A certain touch
I never had a love
That I loved so much
When I look back
You're everywhere

Turn the page, You were there

You came and answered

My every prayer

Turn the page, You were there
