It's 1999 and my mums just gave birth, It's either gonna make her life worse or it's Gonna be a joyride like a bike on a road
It's not gonna be long till I let my self go And now I'm 9 years old, Home all alone in my bedroom crying because dad has no soul, he's left me beaten and bruised Even to my mum he's a man from the hell and a mistake to the earth
He should of been put down birth Living like this has not made it very easy because it's led me to make myself vulnerable boys use me like a trike on the street,
There the ones that have made me feel the worst But I've got good memories even though they treat me like dirt,

Just a young girl finding her life hard but no matter what it's gonna get easier
With help from the people who matters
The people who really care
Because life is one rollercoaster ride

I now live with my nan because mums been sent down for a stupid kids crap Mum went in there after she walked down the isle With my new step dad who I've known for a while He's a new man but he's good man
And treats me like I'm his own fam, Mums been in there for quite while She's doing well for her self and made mates
And I know she's going to admire How strong I've been while she's been in She's not guilty because she's amazing and got everyone behind her back There's a million people waiting to see her For the first time in a while I'd talk about my life even more but I'm only 14 Lifes gonna give me some more good&bad; times I guess I'll just have to wait and see what the future brings me

Just a young girl finding her life hard but no matter
what it's gonna get easier
With help from the people who matters
The people who really care
Because life is one rollercoaster ride
