Say, Look again it's missing
You felt it before He's coming for more
The daemon clutching you and blissing
Yeah, the mighty God's been watching down but here's the truth
We know that he was never here for us to listen

Cause everyone thinks they're under control
When it's a piece of cake for him just to plunder your soul ya know it
It happened in the start with Adam and Eve
Every blunder made in time is as usual on the roll

A slight hope maybe weak but strong enough to stand
The only thing we need just to get it in our hands
I'm reaching for it one more time
Let the voice roar Let it roar all over this land

Blast the horn. Relight. The world we change with all the might ã "ã @ã,-ç•CEã,'è¶Šã ^ â'¼ã ³ã <ã 'ã |ã „ã,< don't feel the distance

Relaugh. Prepare to fight. The world we want to change tonight

ã,†ã šã,CEã ¢ã „æ~Žæ—¥ã,' ã ¢ã <ã ¿ã -ã,<ã ¾ã § don't feel the distance now

And everything is losing track where it's going to
We know that we don't wanna let it be or let it through
It's just a waste of time
Just waiting for the sign
Gotta start it on but here's one thing that you should know

You're the one to move. It's always the same
You're the one who choose. Nobody's ever there to blame
Let us hold it in our hand again
Get it on, Get it ready cause the"one more time"is now

Blast the horn. Relight. The world we change

Lost again you stand there terminating what you feel Get a grip and gotta understand what is real
It's just a waste of time
Just waiting for the sign
Let it start it on but here's one thing that you should know

You're the one to move. It's always the same
You're the one who choose. Nobody's ever there to blame
