"SCENT OF YESTERDAY"

Getting absorbed and drunk with vanity
Assure all the faculties
Recalling the beauty of which what we used to see

Focus the earth beneath me now
Rehearsing how to fly Heyla
Hail to your role of lifetime
And on and on and on another birth today

Hello, Hello a rhyme with reason
Hello, Hello a scene of yesterday

Hello, Hello another season
Hello, Hello a scent of yesterday

Answering all will lose your trace again
We gather along, Pretend
Just practice the showing off of what we used to be

Inhale the air we're choking of
Recalling how to fly Heyla
Hail to the sound of lifetime
Come on come on come on another birth today

Hello, Hello another season
Hello, Hello a scent of yesterday

Test test test, the god's made the world
Left right left repeat so absurd
Lost, but we hear the sound of today

Bring it on to wake up and get away

So long we wait for the sign
Never was it clear for us time to time
One thought, belief and that's all we know
But that's enough, you know? Here we go

Laughing at the end of the world
Come go and be make sure you're cured
Under the sun in perfect days
Under the sun another birth today
