I used to suffer and hate
To feel complete...
Life comes and goes suddenly
I forget to breathe...
You're killing me... avenge it
Punish me to end this
Fake to a fault
And you are playing god today

Waiting for the reckoning
We're enemies... I'm not your long lost friend

I don't think I can withstand
With every day of pain
We're closer to the reckoning...

I seem to be gravitating
To your disease...
You're killing me... avenge it
Punish me to end this
Fake to a fault
And you are playing god today
