"A Little Rain"

I cut the sandbags that were tied to my feet
I emptied them out and thought Iâ€™d made a beach
They said â€™Kid, that ainâ€™t a beach, thereâ€™s no water.
Youâ€™ve
just trapped yourself in a desertâ€™
Everybody needs a little rain
Everybody needs a little rain
I burned the letters in that old dusty box
From somebody that I didnâ€™t know at all
And for a while I felt free
But thereâ€™s a fine line between free and lost
Everybody needs a little rain
Everybody needs a little rain
Everybody needs a little rain
Everybody needs a little rain
